1. INTRODUCTION

Yu Cai Foundation (“YCF”) strictly prohibits bribery and corruption in all its activities. YCF adopts a ZERO TOLERANCE APPROACH against all forms and acts of bribery and corruption, and upholds all applicable laws in relation to anti-bribery and corruption.

The objective of this Dealing with Third Parties Policy (“Policy”) is to establish a standard policy to ensure that the whole approach and process in dealing with Third Parties¹ is consistent across YCF and in line with YCF’s policies and commitment against bribery and corruption.

2. APPLICATION

This Policy applies to all trustees and employees (permanent or contract) of YCF, and Third Parties which YCF engages or proposes to engage.

This Policy has been approved by the Board of Trustees of YCF and shall be effective on 1 June 2020.

3. DEALING WITH THIRD PARTIES

- 3.1 YCF may potentially be exposed to liability as a result of bribery and corruption committed by Third Parties.
- 3.2 As such, YCF expects Third Parties dealing with YCF to apply the highest ethical standards in their relationships and that they have an appropriate anti-bribery and corruption compliance framework in place.
- 3.3 YCF may not enter into, or continue, a relationship with any Third Party if it cannot be satisfied that such Third Party will behave in a manner consistent with this Policy, the YCF’s Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy (“ABC Policy”) and in accordance with applicable anti-bribery and corruption laws.

To protect trustees, employees and YCF from potential liability for bribery or corruption committed by Third Parties, there are a number of steps that must be taken as set out below:

(i) Due Diligence

Risk based due diligence must be conducted on all Third Parties by the respective departments engaging with the Third Party.

The level of due diligence should be guided by the results of a preliminary risk assessment process, categorising the Third Parties as high, medium or low risk.

(ii) Appropriate provisions in the agreements with the Third Parties

Arrangements with Third Parties must be transparent and documented in a written agreement with the relevant Third Parties. The following should be included in the agreement to be entered into with a relevant Third Party:

- the remuneration/compensation payable to the Third Party (which must be appropriate and justifiable remuneration for legitimate services rendered or goods supplied);

¹ “Third Parties” includes, without limitation, volunteers, grantees, donors, agents, consultants, contractors and suppliers.

- a warranty or undertaking that the Third Party has not and will not engage in corrupt conduct or bribery;
- an undertaking that the Third Party will comply with all relevant anti-bribery and corruption laws, this Policy and the ABC Policy;
- a continuing obligation on the Third Party to advise YCF if any contravention of the above provisions occurs; and
- a right of termination/right of exit if the Third Party pays bribes or acts in a manner which is inconsistent with the agreement, all relevant anti-bribery and corruption laws, this Policy and the ABC Policy.

The relevant employee engaging with the Third Party must ensure that the Third Party complies with all the clauses in such contractual arrangements that he/or she manages or administers.

Agreements to be entered into between YCF and the Third Parties will contain anti-bribery and corruption clauses in accordance with the specimen clauses, where applicable, appended in Appendix A.

Further, all existing Third Parties that already have an agreement in place with YCF must complete and sign the Third Parties Anti-Bribery & Corruption Declaration Form as appended in Appendix B.

(iii) On-going requirements

YCF will establish monitoring and re-evaluation requirements for Third Parties, depending on the assessment of the risk and the steps necessary to mitigate that risk and taking into consideration the nature of the Third Party's role and history. This will include regular and on-going review of the Third Parties by the respective departments engaging with the Third Parties, acting on red flags and changes in risk factors.

(iv) General red flags

There may be conduct, circumstances and actions that trustees and employees come across during their appointment or employment with YCF, which constitute warning signs that a Third Party may be engaging in bribery or other forms of corruption.

Appendix C sets out a non-exhaustive list of examples of "red flags" that trustees and employees should review in relation to the Third Parties and report immediately to YCF via the whistleblowing channel provided in the Whistleblowing Policy. YCF may take any remedial action as appropriate, including declining any relationship or agreement with the Third Party, or terminating any existing agreement with the Third Party.

(v) Payment

As a matter of general policy, YCF does not allow payment to Third Parties to be made to their offshore accounts save and except where such Third Parties are foreign companies or operated or located offshore. If a Third Party insists on payment to be made to their offshore account, the employee concerned shall report the matter to the General Manager immediately.

3.4 In respect of any engagement of a government official or ex-government official, or their immediate family members (“person” in the section below), to perform services that have a legitimate business purpose, in addition to the steps set out in Paragraph 3.3, the employee engaging with the person must ensure that:

- the circumstances surrounding the person’s engagement do not give rise to appearance of impropriety;
- the person is not engaged to perform services that conflict with the official’s duties or obligations;
- the person is objectively and unquestionably qualified in terms of background and experience to perform the services for which he or she is being engaged;
- there is no expectation that the person is being engaged by YCF in exchange for any improper action or business advantage from the government (a quid pro quo);
- YCF has no official applications currently pending decision before the official and/or the relevant governmental ministry department from the time the person first came to YCF’s attention as a candidate through the time at which he/she was formally engaged;
- the fees are reasonable and consistent with the services to be performed and the person’s professional qualifications and experience;
- appropriate ethical Chinese walls and monitoring of those walls, are implemented to ensure that the person does not interact with his or her government or former government colleagues on matters that can affect YCF; and
- the engagement is made only after proper evaluation where proposals were also obtained from at least two (2) others similar service providers.

DOs

- DO conduct due diligence to assess the integrity of Third Parties depending on the level established by the risk analysis.
- DO ensure all Third Parties are made aware of this Policy and the ABC Policy and the YCF’s expectations of them.
- DO periodically monitor Third Parties’ performance and business practices to ensure ongoing compliance.
- DO ensure when there are “red flags” raised, further investigation must be conducted and the red flags are sufficiently addressed before entering into any relationship with the Third Party.

DON'Ts

- DO NOT enter into any dealings with any Third Party reasonably suspected of engaging in bribery and improper practices unless those suspicions are investigated and resolved.
- DO NOT allow payment to Third Parties to be made to their offshore accounts save and except where such Third Parties are foreign companies or operated or located offshore.
- DO NOT enter into relationships with Third Parties who object to anti-bribery and corruption representations and warranties in commercial agreements or give negative response when told of such requirements.

➤ DO ensure that all contracts, where applicable, incorporate the provisions relating to anti-bribery and corruption.

Depending on the governing law of the agreement, these clauses may be subject to further review by the relevant foreign counsels.
